

Sponsorship Opportunities

September 20th & 21st 2018

About DevOpsDays

The first DevOpsDays was held in Ghent, Belgium in 2009. Since then, DevOpsDays events have multiplied and expanded globally with over 55 events planned for 2018.

DevOpsDays is a worldwide series of community run technical conferences covering topics of software development, IT infrastructure operations, and the intersection between them. It is run by volunteers from the community, for the benefit of the community. We are not a commercial conference and we believe that our focus on serving the community creates a truly unique experience for both delegates and sponsors.

Join the community

DevOpsDays London is run as a single track of curated talks in the morning and in the afternoon we host self organized conversations. The self organized content is known as "open spaces". As a sponsor of DevOpsDays London you are encouraged to participate in the event. We want you to attend the talks and to take part in the open spaces - We want you to get involved!

What people said about DevOpsDays London 2017

Over 300 people attended last year's DevOpsDays London. Here's what some of them said...

"Wasn't entirely serious proposing fractions of @DevOpsDaysLDN as unit of measurement for conf quality but i am now the more I think about it" - Moritz Rogalli

"These folks achieved something that few others even attempt. If you want advice on running an inclusive conference, speak to them" - Dan Young

"Childcare facilities, inclusive language, realtime closed captioning, opening talk on humane teams: #DevOpsDays is how conferences should be" - BluePompitz

Location: DevOpsDays London will be returning to the QEII Centre in London.

Number of Delegates: This year we intend to sell over 400 tickets.
